"Unveiling" Britain

Lahore-based Amna Saadat examines reactions to British politician Jack Straw's comments on the veil worn by Muslim women — and welcomes the resulting debate. Also, Jonathan Becker writes that little is being done to combat Russia's racial and ethnic tensions. Also this week, Orhan Pamuk was awarded the 2006 Nobel Prize for Literature. His memoir, Istanbul: Memories of a City, was selected by The Globalist as one of our Top Ten Books on Globalization in 2005.

New Globalist Poll

What do Jack Straw's comments reveal about the state of European society?

- European leaders are not afraid to speak their minds.
- European culture is incompatible with Muslim culture.
- Europe is not as tolerant of foreign cultures as it appears.
- Europe is readily able to confront issues of cultural divide.
